23rd March 2025 – Third Sunday of Lent

A Thought.... This past week the boys and girls from the CBS and Presentation Primary schools celebrated the Ceremony of Light. This simple, yet powerful moment of prayer, saw them take responsibility for their own faith. When they were baptised their Godparents took a lighted candle from the Paschal candle and held it as they, and the parents, professed faith and promised to pass it on, by word and example, to the child. Now, just before they are to celebrate Confirmation, the children stand with their own candles and take responsibility for it themselves. They are people of faith, the Holy Spirit is active in their lives and they promise to try to nurture that gift in life... At some point we too took responsibility for our faith - coming to Mass, praying with others is our way of nurturing it - or at least it is one aspect of our way of nurturing it. Fr Dermot
