28th September 2025 – 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A thought... In a few week's time the next phase of the synodal journey for the Irish Church will take place here in Kilkenny. People from all around Ireland will come together to reflect on the issues/questions/ideas that have been gathered from all the conversations that have been taking place. The idea is that this day will help bring to the fore those issues that need the most attention and then, once that is done, those topics will be sent to Rome to be part of the international conversation. Pope Francis started this process and Pope Leo is keen that it continue. The idea behind it is simple and yet very important - that the voice of all is important in the church. As we prepare to host this in Kilkenny we pray for its continued success.
