12th October 2025 – 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A thought... As I write this there is a promise of peace in Gaza and the Holy Land. For the past two years that part of our world has suffered terribly with a war raging and the lives of so many people taken and destroyed. It occurs to me that peace is so fragile and it takes so little to break it. Surely in our world today diplomacy could be used to resolve so much - could we dream of a day when wars are not "necessary". We give thanks for this peace but we continue to pray for the many other parts of our world that need it so badly. Fr Dermot

Prayers for the Pre-Synodal Assembly of the Catholic Church in Ireland All Catholics are invited to pray for a special gathering that will take place in Kilkenny on 18 October, called a Pre-Synodal Assembly of the Catholic Church in Ireland. This assembly is an important juncture on the journey towards a National Synodal Assembly to be held in 2026. Around 240 people will be in attendance and these are drawn from each diocese on the island, Religious Congregations and Church movements. A preparatory document, entitled Baptised and Sent - the fruits of listening sessions across Ireland last spring - will be the basis for discussion at this gathering, and for the next stage of the journey of renewal. Central to the document is a renewed focus on baptism as the foundation of our Christian dignity, unity, and mission and how baptism infuses the life and mission of the Church in Ireland today and into the future. You are invited to read this document by visiting www.synod.ie/baptised-and-sent-preparatory-document-available-now/ Please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide the conversations at Kilkenny, and those flowing from it, as we walk together as sisters and brothers of Christ, united by our baptism and filled with hope.
