26th October 2025 – 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A thought... This past Wednesday we celebrated the Feast of Pope Saint John Paul II. His was the third longest pontificate in the history of the Church. he was Pope from October 1978 until his death in April 2005. In many ways it was an iconic papacy, he improved relations with other faiths, struggled against communism, but one of the most striking aspects of his pontificate for me is that he beatified 1,344 people and canonised 483. He believed that we are all called to holiness and that many achieve it in their life. Pope Francis even went further recognising the saints next door - those who live among us whom we know. Do you know some of these people...
