7th December 2025 – Second Sunday of Advent

A thought... This past week we had the Feast day of St Francis Xavier, a man who was one of the seven founding members of the Jesuits. A young man from Spain, he travelled to Paris to study and while there encountered St Ignatius of Loyola and they, with others, took on a life of poverty and commitment to following Christ. St Francis is credited with bringing large portions of Asia to Christianity - he is the patron saint of the missions today. Thinking about this, it occurs to me that each of us, as part of our baptism, were blessed on our ears and mouth - to hear and proclaim our faith... We are all supposed to be missionaries even at home - how are you doing at that task?

Fr Dermot

Reshaping Structures - Parishes and Dioceses - opportunities to collaborate

All of our parishes have begun to collaborate in our Pastoral Areas. This exciting development allows for the sharing of resources and ideas. In recent years Dioceses have started to come together in a similar fashion to be better able to serve the people in their care. Join with Very Rev Albert McDonnell and Ms Gemma Mulligan this evening to explore the possibilities of such collaborations on Monday 15th December at 7.30pm in St Kieran's College.

Kneelers

I am delighted that we had the remaining kneelers recovered in the Cathedral. There is no hardship in coming to pray here! Patronage of Primary Schools

The current Department of Education survey on the future of patronage in the primary sector is important in that it will shape the discussion on primary school divesting for the years to come throughout the Republic of Ireland. It is important that those who wish for a change in patronage would have their voice heard. It is equally important that those who wish for a Catholic Education for their children and for those who would wish for sacramental preparation within school would have their voice heard also. For those reasons and to ensure that an accurate picture emerges, please participate in this survey if you are a parent or a prospective parent of a Primary school student. It can be accessed at www.gov.ie/primaryschool survey.
