14th December 2025 – Third Sunday of Advent

A thought... This past week we had the Carol Service for St Kieran's College at the Cathedral. It is always wonderful to be part of a packed church, festive song and reflection. The lads did themselves proud. For me, it marks the start of the Christmas feel... Carols are a wonderful way of telling the Christmas story - or aspects of it - that might not have made the scriptures... They make us think in new ways of the characters of these weeks. Next Sunday we will have the annual Carol Service here at the Cathedral. I am biased but we have the best choir in town and they along with the Unity Singers will transport us to, and through, the Christmas story. Please join us for what is one of the highlights of the parish year.

Reshaping Structures - Parishes and Dioceses - opportunities to collaborate

All of our parishes have begun to collaborate in our Pastoral Areas. This exciting development allows for the sharing of resources and ideas. In recent years Dioceses have started to come together in a similar fashion to be better able to serve the people in their care. Join with Very Rev Albert McDonnell and Ms Gemma Mulligan this evening to explore the possibilities of such collaborations on Monday 15th December at 7.30pm in St Kieran's College.

Cathedral Cafe

Have you been to the Cafe that is re-opened here at the Cathedral. They are open each Saturday and Sunday and they are being well supported - why not stop down after Mass or the next weekend when you are in town. Profits there support the work of Teac Tom and those working there always have a smile and a warm welcome for visitors.

Patronage of Primary Schools

The current Department of Education survey on the future of patronage in the primary sector is important in that it will shape the discussion on primary school divesting for the years to come throughout the Republic of Ireland. It is important that those who wish for a change in patronage would have their voice heard. It is equally important that those who wish for a Catholic Education for their children and for those who would wish for sacramental preparation within school would have their voice heard also. For those reasons and to ensure that an accurate picture emerges, please participate in this survey if you are a parent or a prospective parent of a Primary school student. It can be accessed at www.gov.ie/primaryschool survey.
