A thought....

What trust God had to come to the world in the form of an infant. As we stand before the crib let us marvel at the belief God has in us – he allowed two normal people, Mary and Joseph, to care for, to raise, to educate and to guide his son in our world. I think of all those hidden years when Jesus was living in the midst of his friends and family. I think of all those he interacted with, all those who shaped him. Our influence on others should never be underestimated – walk gently with those you encounter in life – we don't know where they have come from and we certainly don't know where they are going. Fr Dermot
